SAYS	THINKS
• "I know I need to post on Instagram and LinkedIn every single day to get clients, but coming up with catchy captions takes up hours of my time." • "I just want a simple tool where I can type a brief summary of my product and get a perfect, ready-to-post caption with relevant hashtags instantly." • "Hiring a social media agency is way too expensive for a small business like mine right now."	• Is my content actually engaging, or am I just screaming into the void? • I'm an entrepreneur, not a professional copywriter. I don't know how to structure a good Call-to-Action (CTA). • If I don't post consistently, the algorithm will bury my page and I'll lose potential customers.
Persona Name (Role/User Type): Solo Small Business Entrepreneur
DOES	FEELS
• Stares at a blank screen for 30 minutes straight trying to fight intense writer's block. • Manually copies and pastes generic text from basic AI chatbots, then spends extra time editing out the overly corporate, robotic language. • Scrolls through competitor profiles to manually hunt down trending hashtags and formatting ideas.	• Overwhelmed by the pressure of handling operations, sales, and marketing all on their own. • Frustrated by the slow, tedious process of drafting text when they should be focusing on building their products. • Anxious about falling behind competitors who have full marketing teams or bigger agency budgets.
